

On Saturday 11th March 2017, 13 gymnasts from Harlequin travelled up to Bracknell to compete in the TeamGym Southern Tournament. In the end, all gymnasts came back with fantastic results.

The Micro teams had a very early start, with the competition commencing at 8am. The Youth Level 4 Women's team consisting of Freya Inns, Sami Gundry, Clare Stringer, Ashleigh Kemp and Madison Wraight, scoring 11.55 on tumble and 12.10 on trampet. Overall they scored 23.65, to take silver medals.

The Junior Level 4 Women's team consisting of Annabel Cook, Dana McLean and Jeri Tam Lit-Taylor, landed all their runs cleanly, scoring 11.80 on tumble and 11.95 on trampet. Overall they scored 23.75, to take silver medals.

After a very long wait for some of them, it was time for the Youth Level 4 Women's team to compete. This team consisted of Clare Stringer, Sami Gundry, Madison Wraight, Freya Inns, Freya King, Madison Thomson, Caoimhe Todd, Olivia Lawrence and Amy Mason. After completing their floor routine for the first time, they scored 13.40, 11.85 on tumble and 11.40 on trampet. Overall, they scored 36.65, to take gold medals and became the Southern Champions.

Well done to all the gymnasts for their performance and achievements. You made your coaches extremely proud.
